WHAT IS EINAVAL?

The International Naval Industry Meeting – EINAVAL, created and organized by the Buenos Aires Naval Industry Association (ABIN) since 2009, has established itself as the most emblematic event of Argentina's naval industry and one of the most relevant in the regional landscape.

From November 18 to 20, 2026, it will hold its 9th edition at the NH Gran Hotel Provincial, in the city of Mar del Plata, Argentina — a key hub for maritime and port activities. EINAVAL brings together the main players across the value chain: shipyards, shipowners, industrial suppliers, maritime and port service companies, logistics providers, engineering firms, technology companies, public institutions, business chambers, and academic leaders. Over three high-level professional days, the sector addresses trends, strategic challenges, regulatory frameworks, and opportunities for investment, as well as regional and international cooperation. For companies, EINAVAL represents a concrete business platform.

The event features dedicated exhibition areas designed to maximize brand visibility, generate qualified leads, and enhance commercial opportunities.

Participating as a sponsor means:

- ✦ Positioning your brand among key decision-makers in the industry
- ✦ Showcasing products, services, and innovations to a targeted professional audience
- ✦ Generating strategic meetings and high-value institutional relationships
- ✦ Strengthening your presence in both national and regional markets

EINAVAL is therefore a strategic platform to drive business, consolidate partnerships, and foster the growth of the naval and maritime sector, within a high-level professional, institutional, and commercial environment.
